Vision Statement

To redefine the private surf club experience by blending elite, bespoke member services with an authentic celebration of ocean culture.

Whanau First

Every guest that comes to Te Whaanga is welcomed onto the property and, at least for the time they are with us, is considered whanau — family. As whanau, members have a commitment to uphold the core values of our ancestors, ensuring that human activity is in harmony with the land.

Why Membership is Limited

Te Whaanga Surf Club is intentionally exclusive — not to exclude, but to protect the quality of experience for every member. By capping membership numbers, we ensure that every member and their guests receives the personal attention, uncrowded access, and premium service they deserve at one of the world's most iconic surf breaks.

Core Values — The Heart of Te Whaanga

Our club is grounded in the values of our Māori ancestors. These are not just words — they are the living principles that guide every interaction on this land and in this sea.

Kaitiakitanga

A duty and responsibility to act as guardians over the land and natural resources, ensuring they are sustained for future generations. Every member carries this responsibility equally.

Manaakitanga

The obligation to nurture relationships by demonstrating a radical level of respect and care for all those connected to this land and this sea — members, guests, staff, and community alike.

Kotahitanga

The state of being at one. All who come here are united in the acts of kaitiakitanga and manaakitanga. No one holds more or less responsibility — the mandate sits equally with all.

Dawn Patrol Rule #1: Be aware of overnight guests — no music or loud talking before 9am.

Line-Up Etiquette at Indicators

Indicators is a fast, heavy, and highly crowded point break. Strict adherence to the international mechanics of surfing priority is a mandatory condition of membership.

01

The Priority Rule

The surfer closest to the breaking peak — furthest inside — always has unconditional priority. This is non-negotiable.

03

Paddle-Out Paths

When paddling back out to the "Outers" or "Insides" take-off zones, always paddle wide through the deep water channel. Never cross the path of a surfer on a wave face.

02

No Snaking or Drop-Ins

Members must not paddle around another surfer to steal priority (snaking) or take off on a wave someone is already riding (dropping in).

04

Communication

Communicate clearly in the water — call out "got it" to prevent collisions and injuries on fast-breaking sections.

Experience, Safety & Environmental Stewardship

Experience & Safety Self-Assessment

Indicators is an exposed rock and boulder break meant for advanced to expert wave riders. Members must possess the ocean swimming strength and board control necessary to handle heavy 2-to-12-foot South-West swells safely.

- Rock Entry/Exit Safety: Members accept full liability for navigating the hazardous rock-jump entries at the western end of the point.
- Leash Policy: A high-strength surfboard leash appropriate for large groundswells must be worn at all times to protect other surfers from runaway equipment.

Environmental Stewardship

Operating a club adjacent to pristine coastal ecosystems requires a strict environmental code.

- Coastal Preservation: Use designated walkways and boardwalks to access the shoreline. Walking on or damaging sensitive coastal sand dunes or native cliff flora is strictly prohibited.
- Micro-Plastic Control: Scraped surfboard wax, damaged fins, and personal rubbish must be collected and removed from the beach environment immediately.
- Community Respect: Behave respectfully toward local residents, Māori guardians (Tangata Whenua), and public beach users both in the water and in parking areas.

⊗ Aggression Zero-Tolerance: Physical intimidation, verbal abuse, or aggressive localism in the line-up will result in immediate, permanent revocation of club membership.

Code of Conduct & Disciplinary Process

Members are expected to uphold the club's values and act in a way that positively represents Te Whaanga Surf Club at all times.

General Principles

→ Respect

Treat all members, guests, and staff with dignity and respect at all times.

→ Sportsmanship & Inclusion

Exhibit fair play, welcome newcomers, and maintain a positive attitude. Discrimination, harassment, or bullying of any kind will not be tolerated.

→ Safety First

Prioritize the health and well-being of yourself and others, and strictly adhere to all health and safety guidelines.

Disciplinary Process

1 Reporting

Breaches should be reported to the concierge or one of the owners immediately.

2 Investigation

The club's committee will investigate the complaint impartially and confidentially.

3 Penalties

Depending on severity, penalties may range from a verbal/written warning to suspension or permanent expulsion from the club.

 Prohibited Conduct: Abuse and harassment, bringing the club into disrepute, or deliberately breaking club rules or values may result in disciplinary action or suspension of membership.

Member Agreement

By holding a Te Whaanga Surf Club membership card, you acknowledge that your behaviour directly impacts the safety of the line-up and the reputation of the local surfing community.

Monthly Membership Fee

NZ$2,500 per month — includes all membership benefits, NZ$500 F&B credit, and access to all club facilities.

Guest Policy

Only TWO guests permitted per visit. Members are fully accountable for the conduct of their invited guests while on club premises.

No Access Areas

Lodge, Hot Tub, Pool, and Canvas Town are not included in surf club membership access.

Annual membership fees must be paid by the specified due date. Non-payment may result in suspension. Members are financially responsible for any intentional or accidental damage caused to club property.
